ABOUT US

Our Company

Who we are:

Our coffee factory is located in Alicante, Spain, with a 20-year history as roasters and a fully automated packaging system on-site. Our company, chosen as one of the leading coffee companies in Spain, offers a complete line of very high quality and premium coffees.

Our Classic line can be found in supermarkets and coffee shops around the world. The line covers all coffee tastes, from strong robustas to soft exquisite arabicas. Our second, recently-launched coffee collection, is a premium Single Origin line of coffees, most being fine arabicas. The prize-winning packaging design of these Single Origin Gourmet coffees are fast becoming a success around the world. Clients may create their own brands with our coffee.

Our products have travelled far beyond our own borders. Along with promotion throughout Europe in conjunction with the Alicante Chamber of Commerce, the Valencian Export Institute (IVEX) and the Institute of Foreign Trade (ICEX), our coffee is present in many countries and in all the continents of the world.

Certifications

Our Factory is IFS and FDA certified. To have this type of certification means that the factory has had to undergo very exhaustive process and quality controls. Generally, in order to sell coffee in supermarkets, the coffee needs to have been roasted in a factory with IFS certification or similar.

WHY IS OUR AIR HOT GAS ROASTING CONSIDERED THE BEST?

It is important to understand that not all roasting methods yield the same results. Same as it is not the same to cook a pizza in a microwave as it is to do it in a traditional Italian clay oven.

Our industrial roasters use the Hot Air Gas method.

Hot air gas coffee roasting machines are considered the best because they provide precise temperature control, even roasting, and efficient heat transfer for a consistent and high-quality coffee roast.

Hot air gas coffee roasting machines utilize a combination of hot air and gas burners to roast coffee beans. This method offers several advantages:

1. Precise Temperature Control: Gas burners allow for precise temperature adjustments during the roasting process, ensuring optimal heat levels for different stages of roasting.
2. Even Roasting: The hot air circulation in these machines promotes even heat distribution, resulting in uniform roasting of the coffee beans. This helps to bring out the desired flavors and aromas.
3. Efficient Heat Transfer: The use of hot air and gas burners enables efficient heat transfer to the coffee beans. This allows for quicker and more consistent roasting, reducing the chances of under or over-roasting.
4. Consistency: Hot air gas roasters provide a high level of consistency in terms of roast profiles. This is important for coffee producers who aim to maintain a consistent flavor profile across batches.

Overall, hot air gas coffee roasting machines are favored by professionals and enthusiasts alike due to their ability to produce high-quality and consistent coffee roasts with precise control over the roasting process.
